Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On April 20, 2012, The Brink's Company (the "Company") and Frank T. Lennon executed a letter agreement (the "Letter Agreement") terminating the severance agreement between the Company and Mr. Lennon, dated as of September 22, 1997 and amended effective November 14, 2008 (the "Severance Agreement"). As discussed in the Company's definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A, filed March 14, 2012, the Severance Agreement was the last remaining of several severance agreements that the Company entered into with its executives in the 1990s following the relocation of the Company's headquarters to Richmond, Virginia, at which time the Company was considering various strategic alternatives.

The termination of the Severance Agreement is in accordance with the Company's pay-for-performance philosophy and strong corporate governance. As a result of the termination of the Severance Agreement, the Company is no longer party to any agreements that provide for a gross-up of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Company and the Compensation and Benefits Committee of its Board of Directors continually evaluate the Company's pay practices to ensure that they are consistent with the best practices of corporate governance.

The Letter Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1.

Re: Termination of the Severance Agreement between Frank T. Lennon and The Brink's Company (formerly known as The Pittston Company), dated as of September 22, 1997, and amended effective November 14, 2008.

Dear Mr. Lennon:

This letter acknowledges the termination by mutual agreement between you and The Brink's Company (the "Company") of the severance agreement between you and the Company (formerly known as The Pittston Company), dated as of September 22, 1997 and amended effective November 14, 2008 (the "Severance Agreement"). You expressly acknowledge that, on and following the date hereof, you shall have no further rights, and none of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates shall have any further obligations, under the Severance Agreement.

Regards,

/s/ Thomas C. Schievelbein
Thomas C. Schievelbein
Interim President and Chief Executive Officer
