FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE BRINK'S COMPANY AND PIRATE CAPITAL LLC REACH AGREEMENT
Thomas R. Hudson Jr. to Join Board of Directors; Pirate Capital to Withdraw Proposals

RICHMOND, Va., February 8, 2007 — The Brink's Company (NYSE:BCO), a global provider of security and risk management services, and Pirate Capital LLC announced today that they have reached an agreement. As part of the agreement, Thomas R. Hudson Jr., managing member of Pirate Capital, will join the Brink's board of directors at its upcoming February meeting. Hudson will serve on the board's strategy, pension and finance, and executive committees. Pirate Capital owns approximately 8.5% of the outstanding common stock of Brink's.

Michael T. Dan, chairman, president and chief executive officer of The Brink's Company, said: "We welcome Mr. Hudson to the board and look forward to his contribution to the continued creation of additional value for all of our shareholders."

The Brink's Company and Pirate Capital have agreed that the Brink's board will nominate and recommend the election of Hudson in May 2007 for a three-year term as director. Under the agreement, Pirate Capital will withdraw its proxy contest and shareholder proposal for this year's annual meeting. Pirate Capital has also agreed that, through the close of the Brink's 2008 annual shareholders meeting, it will not seek the election of any person to the board or submit any shareholder proposal or otherwise conduct a proxy solicitation or other campaign concerning the election or removal of directors or shareholder proposals.

Thomas R. Hudson Jr., said: "I am very pleased with the board's decision to extend a directorship and avoid a proxy contest. I look forward to joining the board and contributing to the further creation of value for all shareholders."

Since 2002, Hudson has been the managing member of Pirate Capital LLC, an investment manager with assets in excess of $1.0 billion under management. From 1999 to 2001, he served as a managing director at Amroc Investments, LLC, where he directed all distressed research and managed the bank loan trading desk. Prior to that, from 1997 to 1999, Hudson served as a vice president and portfolio manager at Goldman, Sachs & Co., where he was responsible for investing and trading a $500 million portfolio of distressed domestic and international private assets. Hudson currently serves as a director of Cornell Companies, Inc., PW Eagle, Inc., The Allied Defense Group, Inc., and PEP Boys - Manny, Moe & Jack.
